anesthesiologist
a physician specialized in the practice of administering drugs that cause insensibility to pain
"Before surgery, an anesthesiologist will administer propofol."

aspirate
to draw in by suction
"Aspirate the suspension using a 5ml syringe."

 cosmetic
related to the improvement of appearance
"Nowadays even young and attractive people decide to undergo cosmetic surgery to improve their looks."

drain
a tube which carries liquid away from your body
"We must replace the drain as it's leaking."

effective
bringing desired results
"Unfortunately, the treatment isn't effective so we have to reexamine our diagnosis."

emergency
a sudden and possibly dangerous situation which requires immediate action
"The A&E department deals with all emergencies."

explanatory
intended to help you understand something else
"I found the explanatory article on the new treatment very interesting."

keyhole
related to surgery performed through a small opening
"The advantages of keyhole surgery to the patient include reduced pain and hemorrhaging."

neurosurgery
the area of medicine concerned with the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of disorders of the nervous system
"Diagnostic methods used in neurosurgery include computed tomography and magnetic resonance imaging."
operating room
a hospital room with special equipment where surgeries are performed "Madam, your husband is currently being operated on in the second floor operating room."

operation
the process of cutting into somebody's body and altering the internals
"In the case of the injury of internal organs, surgeons have to perform an operation on the patient."

orthopedic surgeon
a medical professional who deals with the treatment of injuries of bones
"After consulting the orthopedic surgeon, Mr Jones felt much happier about the proposed procedure."

prepping
the act of preparing for something "When the nurse had finished prepping the patient, the surgery began."

reconstructive surgery surgery aimed at restoring the form and function of the body
"Many victims of serious traffic accidents undergo reconstructive surgery of the face."

scrub up to wash hands and forearms thoroughly before surgery "Dr. Savage has been dismissed as he forgot to scrub up before operating."

sterile completely clean and without any bacteria
"Make sure the surgical equipment your team will be using is sterile."

suture
a stitch used for closing a cut or wound "Sutures are usually applied using a needle."

swab
a small piece of cotton used to clean an injury
"Clean the wound with a sterile swab before applying suture."

vascular surgeon
a specialist who deals with the diseases of arteries and veins
"Vascular surgeons are trained in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases affecting all parts of the vascular system except for the heart and grain."