

Unit 22 — Coronavirus COVID-19

Reading: Ten Questions About the Coronavirus (Covid-19) Answered

2025 Medical English Online Course. All rights reserved.

Note: This article was written on March 5th, 2020 and may not reflect current events or updates. Please refer to the World Health Organisation (WHO) website or a local governmental source for more updated and/or accurate information. As a reminder, this website is for language learning purposes only and is not intended as medical advice.

#1. Why does the virus have two names?

...

Thank you for your interest!

Please visit the Shop to get the complete PDF.

Discussion Questions

This article was written at an early stage of the outbreak. What information, if any, has been left out? Is any information incorrect or outdated?

Think of three additional questions about the Coronavirus and write them down. Now research the answers and write them down.