

Unit 22 — Coronavirus COVID-19

common cold

a normally harmless viral infection of the nose, throat, and upper respiratory tract

"The common cold spreads through droplets in the air when someone who is sick coughs, sneezes or talks."

contract an illness

to formally catch or acquire a sickness

"It is possible, but not likely, to contract an illness while visiting a sick relative in the hospital."

Coronavirus

any one of a family of viruses that cause illness ranging from the common cold to more severe pneumonia

"You should avoid close contact with anyone showing symptoms of Coronavirus."

Thank you for your interest!

Please visit the Shop to get the complete PDF.